

Long Ago in ZNEWS

September 1991

By Bob Jenkins

The biggest news was all about the 4th Annual Z Car National Convention that ZONC was holding in Pleasanton, at the Sheraton Hotel. With one month to go, there were over 130 people registered for the convention. Steve Millen was to be a guest speaker at the awards banquet. Nissan was planning on bring up both a 300ZX Twin Turbo GTO and a GTP-ZX turbo race car. There was to be a San Francisco by night tour, a Skip Barber School Tech Session, an autocross at Pleasanton Fair Grounds, and a BBQ at the Wentz Brothers Winery in Livermore, which was also the termination point of the TSD rallye.

A From the Cockpit column by President Mike Chew thanked all the ZONCERS who helped make the convention a huge success. He also reported that Rex Jennett would now be assisting the ZNEWS editor John Ettare, and that autocrossing was returning to ZONC, with Andy Craig spear heading that return.

There was an article about a tour to Muir Woods and Stinson Beach, a flyer for a Datsun Swap Meet at FAR Performance in Mt. View, and news about ZONC's Annual Birthday Party BBQ, to be held at Pleasant Hill Park in Pleasant Hill, and the Annual Apple Hill Tour.
